Bunubu and the Bubble Burrow
Curiosity can turn ordinary moments into extraordinary adventures.

One rainy afternoon, Bunubu took a warm bubble bath in his cozy burrow.

When the bath was over, hundreds of shiny bubbles swirled down the drain with a soft glug-glug-glug.

Curious, Bunubu followed the bubbling sounds through a hidden tunnel beneath his burrow.

The tunnel opened into a secret underground chamber filled from floor to ceiling with giant floating soap bubbles.

Inside the chamber, a group of frogs bounced from bubble to bubble like tiny trampolines.

A cheerful frog named Ribbit leaped over and said, 'Welcome to the Bubble Burrow!'

The frogs giggled as they floated through the air inside extra-large bubbles that drifted slowly around the cave.

Bunubu joined the fun, bouncing high into the air and spinning through sparkling bubble tunnels.

Soon the bubbles began to pop one by one. The frogs worked together to guide the last few bubbles safely outside.

As the final bubble floated away, the frogs thanked Bunubu for the wonderful adventure. From then on, every bubble bath made Bunubu wonder where the bubbles might travel next.
