Bunubu and the Carrot Clock

Good things often happen at the right time when we are patient and careful.

One morning, Bunubu discovered a strange carrot-shaped clock buried beside his garden.

The clock had leafy green hands and tiny numbers carved into its orange sides.

Snack time!!

As soon as Bunubu wound it up, a bell rang loudly.
'Snack time!' it announced.

But it was much too early. The sun had barely risen, and everyone was still finishing breakfast.

Bunubu turned the clock's hands to fix it. This time, snack time arrived so late that Nibble the rabbit nearly fell asleep waiting.

The forest friends giggled as the clock kept ringing at the wrong moments. Sometimes it called for snacks during games, naps, or even story time.

Bunubu carefully studied the clock. He noticed a tiny message hidden under one leafy hand:
'Patience makes perfect timing.'

Instead of rushing, Bunubu slowly adjusted the clock and listened to its gentle ticking.

At last, the bell rang exactly when everyone's tummies started rumbling. It was the perfect snack time.

The friends shared carrot muffins, berry juice, and crunchy treats. Bunubu smiled as the Carrot Clock ticked happily, keeping perfect time at last.
