Bunubu and the Ladybug Library
Being respectful and considerate helps everyone enjoy shared spaces.

While exploring a tunnel beneath a berry bush,
Bunubu discovered a secret underground library.

Inside, hundreds of ladybugs carefully organized shelves filled with colorful picture books.

Lola Ladybug welcomed Bunubu. 'Remember,' she whispered, 'everyone must speak softly in the library.'

Bunubu nodded and opened a book filled with pictures of moon mushrooms and singing roots.

Suddenly, a noisy beetle shouted, 'WOW!' His voice echoed through the room.

At once, dozens of picture books flapped open and flew into the air like colorful birds.

The library filled with fluttering pages. Ladybugs zipped around trying to guide the books back to their shelves.

Bunubu had an idea. He politely reminded everyone to whisper. As the library grew quiet, the books slowly floated back down.

Lola Ladybug thanked Bunubu. The flying books settled neatly onto their shelves, ready for more readers.

Before leaving, Bunubu borrowed a picture book and promised to always use his quiet library voice. The ladybugs waved goodbye with happy smiles.
