Bunubu and the Lost Beetle Band

Listening carefully and helping friends can solve even the trickiest problems.

One night, Bunubu heard soft music coming from under his pillow. Tiny trumpets, fiddles, and bells played a cheerful tune.

Bunubu lifted the pillow and discovered a tiny beetle band. The beetles looked worried even while they played.

'Our drummer, Tappy, is missing!' cried Buzz, the band leader. 'We cannot finish our concert without him.'

The beetles led Bunubu to a hidden doorway beneath his bed. It opened into a maze of twisting roots underground.

The maze stretched in every direction. Some roots hummed like strings while others tapped like drums.

Bunubu listened carefully. Far away, he heard a steady beat: tap-tap-boom, tap-tap-boom.

Following the rhythm, Bunubu and the beetles wound through the maze until they found Tappy.

Tappy was safe but lost. He had been drumming on a hollow root and accidentally wandered too far from the band.

Together they hurried back. That night, the Beetle Band played their grandest concert ever, with Tappy keeping perfect rhythm.

As the final note echoed through the roots, the beetles thanked Bunubu. From then on, whenever music drifted under his pillow, Bunubu knew his tiny friends were nearby.
