Bunubu and the Mushroom Hat Shop
Sometimes listening to someone's worries is the best way to make a new friend.

One afternoon, Bunubu discovered a tiny shop hidden beneath a giant toadstool. A sign read: Mushroom Hat Shop.

Inside, shelves were filled with mushroom hats of every shape and color.

A cheerful blue cap sang songs. A spotted mushroom hat told silly jokes. A tall brown cap loved giving directions.

Madam Morel smiled and said, 'Every mushroom hat has its own personality.'

Then Bunubu spotted a bright red mushroom hat sitting on a velvet cushion.

'I will not be worn!' declared the Bossy Red Cap.
'No one is stylish enough for me.'

Many customers had tried to wear it, but the hat always hopped away and hid behind the shelves.

Bunubu sat beside the hat and listened. The Red Cap admitted it was worried about getting dirty or squashed.

Bunubu promised to treat it carefully. At last, the hat agreed to ride gently on Bunubu's head for a short stroll.

The Red Cap discovered adventures could be fun after all. From then on, it happily joined Bunubu on special outings while still keeping its shiny red spots sparkling.
