Bunubu and the Shy Stone Giant

Kindness and understanding can help others feel safe enough to be themselves.

One afternoon, Bunubu heard a soft snuffle coming from deep inside a cave.

He followed the sound and found a huge stone wall with two shy eyes peeking out.

'Hello,' said Bunubu gently. 'Are you a wall that can cry?'

The wall rumbled softly. 'I am Grumbleton, a stone giant. I hide here because my footsteps are too loud.'

Grumbleton took one tiny step. BOOM! Pebbles jumped, bats fluttered, and Bunubu's ears wiggled.

Bunubu thought carefully. 'Maybe your footsteps do not need to be smaller. Maybe they need a softer path.'

Together with the Echo Bats and cave neighbors,
Bunubu gathered moss, sand, and soft leaves.

They made a fluffy cave trail that softened each giant step into a gentle thump.

Grumbleton stepped out from behind the cave wall. This time, nobody was frightened. Everyone cheered.

From then on, Grumbleton walked proudly through the cave on his soft path. Bunubu smiled, knowing that a little kindness can help even the biggest friend feel brave.
