Chibub and Bunubu: The Burrow Door in the Condo
Friendship can connect very different worlds in wonderful ways.

One rainy afternoon, Chibub noticed a tiny round door appearing in the wall of his condo.

The little door had a brass knob, a mushroom-shaped window, and a sign that read: Please Knock Politely.

Curious, Chibub knocked three times. Tap. Tap.
Tap.

The door swung open to reveal a long underground hallway glowing with mushroom lamps.

Rows of tiny beetle mailboxes lined the walls, each painted in bright colors and decorated with leaves.

At the other end of the hallway stood Bunubu, carrying a basket of carrots and looking just as surprised.

'I thought this door led to my pantry,' laughed Bunubu. 'I did not expect it to open into the sky.'

Together they explored the magical hallway, delivering letters with the Beetle Postmaster and lighting extra mushroom lamps.

Soon the hallway became a favorite shortcut between cloud-top condos and cozy underground burrows.

From then on, whenever Chibub or Bunubu wanted to visit, they simply knocked on the tiny round door and stepped into a new adventure.
