Chibub and Bunubu: The Snail Who Delivered a Cloud
Even when we get lost, kind friends can help us find the right way.

One morning, Chibub waited on his condo balcony for a special fluffy cloud package.

Far below, Shelly Snail carried the package on her back, wrapped in silver string and labeled: To Chibub, Sky Condo.

But Shelly took a wrong turn near a carrot root and wandered into Bunubu's underground tunnel system.

At the first door, she knocked politely. Drip, drip!
Tiny raindrops fell from the cloud package onto a beetle's welcome mat.

'Wrong address,' said the beetle kindly, handing Shelly a leaf umbrella.

Shelly tried a mushroom house next. Drip, drip!
Then a worm library. Drip, drip! Soon little puddles sparkled all through the tunnels.

Bunubu found Shelly looking worried beside a puddle shaped like a heart. 'I can help,' he said. 'Chibub lives up, not down.'

Bunubu guided Shelly through the root lift, past glowing mushrooms, and up toward the garden crack where Chibub was waiting.

Chibub opened the cloud package, and a soft little cloud puffed out with a happy sprinkle.

Shelly smiled proudly. The delivery was finally complete, and the tiny raindrops she left behind helped the tunnel flowers bloom.
