

Chibub and the Backpack

— A colorful little shopping adventure at the mall —

A Special Day

Chibub woke up with a happy little wiggle. Today felt bright, special, and new. “I think I need a backpack,” he said.

Off to the Mall

He brushed his curls and fluffed his wings. Then he flew from the condo window. The mall sparkled in the distance.

Whoosh

The mall doors opened with a whoosh. Inside were lights, music, and shiny floors. Chibub looked all around.

Colorful Bags

Then Chibub saw a very colorful shop. Bags bloomed in the window like flowers. The sign said Colorful Bags.

So Many Choices

Inside, every shelf was full of color. There were flowers, leaves, dots, and swirls. Chibub's eyes grew big and round.

Just His Size

He peeked behind a row of purses. There sat a little backpack just his size. It had flowers that looked like tiny fireworks.

Perfect Fit

Chibub slipped the straps over his tiny shoulders. The backpack fit between his wings. “It feels soft as a cloud!” he laughed.

Adventure Ready

A kind store helper smiled. “That backpack looks made for adventures,” she said. Chibub nodded very seriously.

Homeward

Chibub fluttered back through the mall. His new backpack bounced softly behind him. The colors looked bright in the sunshine.

Ready for Adventures

At home, Chibub placed the backpack by his bed.
It was ready for snacks, toys, and tiny treasures.
“So many adventures can fit inside,” he said.
