

Chibub and the Lost Library Card

— A gentle story about staying calm, retracing steps, and loving books. —

Library Day

Chibub woke up with a bookish smile. Today was library day. He wanted the biggest picture book on the shelf.

Missing

He looked in his tiny backpack. He looked under his pillow. His library card was not there.

Fluttery Feelings

His tummy felt fluttery. His wings gave one nervous flap. 'What if I lost it forever?' he whispered.

A Calm Breath

Chibub smelled a flower on the table. Then he blew out slowly. 'First, I can retrace my steps.'

The Kitchen Counter

He checked the kitchen counter. There were crumbs from yesterday's toast. But no library card.

The Mailboxes

He fluttered down to the lobby mailboxes. He checked beside the plant. Still no card.

The Library

Chibub went to the library anyway. 'I lost my card,' he said softly. The librarian smiled kindly.

Where Books Hide

'Lost things can be found,' said the librarian. 'Let's look where books like to hide.' Chibub nodded.

Found!

Chibub opened yesterday's book. Something slipped from the pages. His library card fluttered to the rug.

The Biggest Picture Book

Chibub hugged his library card close. He borrowed the biggest picture book on the shelf. And this time, he used a bookmark.
