

Chibub and the Sleepover Star

— A gentle bedtime story about trying something new away from home. —

The Sleepover Card

Chibub found a tiny card by his door. Milo from upstairs was having a sleepover. Chibub's wings gave a happy flutter.

Packing for Bedtime

He packed his soft blanket and favorite book. He added one tiny teddy bear. His backpack looked ready for bedtime.

A Fluttery Feeling

But when the sun went down, Chibub paused. His tummy felt fluttery. “What if I miss my own bed?” he whispered.

Sleepover Friend

Chibub flew up one floor with his backpack. Milo opened the door with a bright smile. “Come in, sleepover friend!”

The Pillow Fort

They built a pillow fort in the living room.
Blankets became walls. Cushions became mountains.

Far From Home

When bedtime came, the room grew quiet. Chibub hugged his teddy. “I feel a little far from home,” he said.

A Sleepover Star

Milo brought out yellow paper and tape. “Let’s make a sleepover star,” he said. Chibub’s eyes grew curious again.

Warm and Soft

They placed the star near a tiny lamp. It glowed warm and soft. The room felt smaller, safer, and sweeter.

Right Here

Chibub tucked his blanket under his chin. Milo whispered, "I'm right here." The sleepover star watched over them.

Proud Morning

In the morning, Chibub woke with a proud smile.
He had tried something new. And the sleepover star came home with him.
