Chibub's Around-the-World Playground
A joyful story about how children everywhere love to play.

Sparkling Playgrounds

Chibub found a big map on his rug.
Tiny playgrounds sparkled across it.
“Do children play everywhere?” he wondered.

Paper Airplane

A paper airplane lifted from the map.
Chibub climbed on with a giggle.
Up, up, up they flew.

City Park Slide

First, Chibub landed in a busy city park.
Children slid down a shiny red slide.
Laughter sounded the same as home.

Kites in the Sand

Next came a golden sandy playground.
Children ran with bright paper kites.
Chibub helped one kite catch the wind.

Swings Under Leaves

Then the airplane floated over green trees.
Children swung beneath giant leaves.
Chibub counted butterflies in the air.

Snow Hopscotch

Farther north, snow covered the ground.
Children drew hopscotch squares in the snow.
Chibub hopped softly from cloud to cloud.

Island Ball

On a sunny island, children kicked a soft ball.
The ocean clapped beside them.
Chibub passed the ball with a tiny wing.

Rooftop Chalk Stars

In another city, children drew chalk stars.
Their rooftop playground touched the sky.
Chibub added one little cloud.

A Language Everyone Knew

Everywhere, the games looked a little different.
But every smile felt familiar.
Play was a language everyone knew.

Everyone to Play

The paper airplane carried Chibub home.
He drew a playground on his map.
Tomorrow, he would invite everyone to play.
