Pipixel and the Doodle Pet Escape
The Great Sketch Chase

The Pencil Sketch

Pipixel sat on the cozy playroom floor with his big sketchpad.

He drew four sketchy legs, a round scribbled tummy, and a curly spring tail.

“I will call you Scrawly,” Pipixel hummed, sharpening his black pencil.

Leap Off the Page

Boing! The black lines began to wiggle and twitch.
With a happy line-art bark, Scrawly the doodle puppy jumped right off the paper!
He landed on the rug and wagged his curly spring tail.

Down the Hallway

“Stop that scribble!” laughed Pipixel.
Scrawly dashed out the door and zoomed straight into the long condo hallway.
Mochimop, the fluffy mop-string puppy, tumbled into the hall to help with the chase.

The Shaving Distraction

Scrawly bounced around a corner like a little black pinball.

Mochimop ran fast, his white mop-strings flapping wildly.

But then, Mochimop saw a tiny pile of curly wooden pencil shavings on the floor. Sniff, sniff!

Crunchy Snacks

“Mochimop, no!” Pipixel called out, running past.
But Mochimop was a pit-crew puppy, and he decided the pencil shavings were excellent imaginary crackers.
He took a happy little crunchy pause.

Looping the Rug

Pipixel chased the doodle puppy by himself.
Scrawly looped around a flowerpot. He ran under a small table.
Pipixel tried to catch him with his sketchpad, but the pencil lines were too fast!

Back to the Page

Scrawly loved the pink eraser. He walked closer and gave it a tiny doodle lick.

Pipixel gently tapped the paper pad to the floor, and Scrawly leaped back onto the sheet, settling down as a perfect drawing once more.

Mochimop trotted in, happily licking the last shaving from his nose.

An Artistic Bedtime

Pipixel closed his sketchpad safely so Scrawly could rest.

He climbed into bed and pulled up his star blanket.

Mochimop curled up at his feet, dreaming of a whole world made of crunchy pencil crackers.
